PortAventura

PortAventura is a theme park complex located between the towns of Vila-seca and Salou. The six themed areas (Mediterranean, Far West, Mexico, China, Polynesia and SésamoAventura) cover 119 hectares and feature 30 rides and attractions, 100 performances every day, 75 bars and restaurants and 27 shops selling handicrafts and gifts. The park has four hotels, a water park (PortAventura Aquatic Park) and a convention centre that can host 4,000 people. This year's new attractions at PortAventura include Shambhala, Europe's highest roller coaster (76 m). In addition to the roller coaster, Shambhala recreates the imaginary Himalayan kingdom set within 14,000 square metres of themed landscape. The park is also planning other new attractions and initiatives, including five new shows and a road safety school for children. All these things, together with its excellent location on the Costa Daurada and transport links have made PortAventura a unique family and leisure attraction in Europe.

Titanic. The Exhibition at the Museu Marítim de Barcelona

Until 30th September 2012

Titanic. The Exhibition is now at the Museu Marítim de Barcelona just in time to commemorate the centenary of the sinking of the liner RMS Titanic. The exhibition takes visitors back in time so that they can find out what life was like on board the short-lived ship from the time of its construction to the current state of its wreckage, which lies almost 4km deep under the North Atlantic. Almost 200 real objects, the faithful recreations of the rooms inside, including the cabins and first class corridors, and an accurate portrayal of the history of the ship, have made this one of the world's most visited touring exhibitions.
