

PARC DEL FORUM

An aerial photograph of a city area. A prominent diagonal road, Diagonal Mar, runs from the bottom right towards the top left. A red double-line arrow follows this road. At the top left, a red circle is connected to the road by a red arrow. Another red arrow points from the road towards a large building complex in the center. A third red arrow points from a building complex on the right towards the road. A blue 'P' parking sign is visible near the bottom right. The area contains various buildings, parking lots, and green spaces.
